

Planting an outdoor wall opens up a world of possibilities.

We recommend the attached list of plants which give a great variety of color and texture and have proved to work very well in our system.

6" plants work best for a full effect. If you are happy to wait for the wall to fill out planting 4" plants will save you money.

Light and water are key to plant health and if you would like a consultation please contact us.

Maranta Leuconeura

Light:
 Suited to cool shady areas.

Watering:
 Soil should be kept moist but not wet.

Myoporum

Light:
 Suited to full sun to partial shade.

Watering:
 Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Philodendron Micans

Light:
 Suited to bright indirect sun.

Watering:
 Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Philodendron Xanadu

Light:
 Suited to bright indirect sun.

Watering:
 Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Protstrate Rosemary

Light:
Suited to full sun to partial shade.

Watering:
Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Jester Fern

Light:
Suited to bright indirect sun.

Watering:
Soil should be kept moist but not wet.

Foxtail Fern

Light:
Suited to morning sun to shade.

Watering:
Soil should be kept moist but not wet.

Lysimachia - Goldie Locks

Light:
Suited to full sun to partial shade.

Watering:
Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Holly Fern

Light:
Suited to full shade.

Watering:
Soil should be kept moist but not wet.

Scottish Moss

Light:
Suited to full sun to partial shade.

Watering:
Soil should be kept moist but not wet.

Santolina Green

Light:
Suited to full sun.

Watering:
Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Festuca filiformis

Light:
Suited to full sun.

Watering:
Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Dichondra - Silver Falls

Light:
Suited to full sun to light shade.

Watering:
Soil should be kept moist but not wet.

Irish Moss

Light:
Suited to full sun to partial shade.

Watering:
Soil should be left to dry out between watering.

Neathe Bella Palm

Light:
Suited to low to medium light without direct sunlight.

Watering:
Soil to be moist but not wet.

East India Holly Fern

Light:
Suited to full or partial shade.

Watering:
Soil to be moist but not wet.

